Tupi Dining Armchair

The Tupi dining armchair reflects the essence of indigenous peoples, evoking their connection to the land, nature, and the spirit of community. The braided rope back, inspired by the traditional craftsmanship of the Tupi peoples, wraps it in an embrace of authenticity, while subtle metallic details add a contemporary touch, creating a perfect balance. With a striking presence at the table, this chair invites moments of sharing and togetherness, in a space where past and present intertwine, creating timeless memories.
